

The Air Charter Association

Application for Individual Membership

This is a new level of membership open exclusively to individuals who were previously employed by a member company of The ACA, who have been placed on furlough or made redundant, as a result of the Coronavirus pandemic.

Membership is free of charge and is valid until 31st March 2021 but will cease if the applicant is re-employed. It allows individuals to continue to receive Association member news and information, join our events and receive support from the Board.
